necessary expenses incurred in connection with the rendition of such services in the amount of $0.00.

BACKGROUND

1. On September 16, 2019 (the “Petition Date”), the Debtors each commenced with this Court a voluntary case under chapter 11 of the Bankruptcy Code. On September 27, 2019, the United States Trustee for the Southern District of New York (the “U.S. Trustee”) appointed the creditors’ committee pursuant to section 1102 of the Bankruptcy Code [D.I. 131]. On April 8, 2020, the Court entered an order authorizing the appointment of an independent fee examiner [D.I. 1023]. No request has been made for the appointment of a trustee.

2. The Debtors’ chapter 11 cases are being jointly administered for procedural purposes only pursuant to Rule 1015(b) and the Order Directing Joint Administration of Chapter 11 Cases [D.I. 59] entered by the Court in each of the chapter 11 cases.

3. Additional information about the Debtors’ businesses and the events leading up to the Petition Date can be found in the Debtors’ Informational Brief [D.I. 17].

RETENTION OF K&S

4. On November 5, 2019, the Debtors applied to the Court for an order approving the retention of K&S as special counsel to the Debtors (the “Initial Retention Application”) [D.I. 427].

5. On November 25, 2019, the Court entered the Initial Retention Order authorizing the Debtors to retain K&S as special counsel under the terms set forth in the Initial Retention Application.

6. On July 30, 2021, the Debtors applied to the Court for an order supplementing the retention and employment of K&S to include additional services, effective nunc pro tunc to July 7, 2021 (the “Supplemental Retention Application”, and with the Initial Retention Application, the “Retention Applications”) [D.I. 3352].

7. On August 18, 2021, the Court entered the Supplemental Retention Order authorizing the Debtors to retain K&S as special counsel under the terms set forth in the Supplemental Retention Application.

8. The Retention Orders authorize the Debtors to compensate and reimburse K&S in accordance with the Bankruptcy Code, the Bankruptcy Rules, the Local Rules, and any other applicable procedures and orders of the Court. Specifically, the Retention Orders authorized the Debtors to retain and employ K&S in accordance with the rates set forth in the Retention Applications, to compensate K&S for services rendered, and to reimburse K&S for its reasonable and necessary expenses incurred, subject to application to this Court.

9. To date, the Debtors have paid K&S a total of $25,782,114.41.

SUMMARY OF PROFESSIONAL COMPENSATION AND REIMBURSEMENT OF EXPENSES REQUESTED

10. In this Fee Application, K&S seeks allowance of compensation for professional services performed during the Fee Period in the amount of $169,668.33 and of expenses incurred in connection with the rendition of such services in the amount of $0.00. During the Fee Period, K&S professionals expended a total of 430.0 hours in connection with the necessary services performed.

11. The fees charged by K&S in these chapter 11 cases are billed in accordance with K&S’ existing billing rates and procedures in effect during the Fee Period (as discounted pursuant to the arrangement with the Debtors described in the Retention Applications). As disclosed in the Retention Applications, K&S, among other things, agreed as a courtesy to the Debtors to bill at approximately 90% of its hourly rates in effect when services are rendered. Additionally, K&S agreed to offer additional discounts to the Debtors, including but not limited to for certain fees on a sliding scale on fees exceeding certain amounts. Such fees are reasonable based on the customary compensation charged by comparably skilled practitioners performing services similar to those performed by K&S in these cases in a competitive national legal market.

12. Exhibit B attached hereto sets forth a summary and comparison of the aggregate blended hourly rates billed by K&S' timekeepers during the preceding twelve-month year and the blended hourly rates billed to the Debtors during the Fee Period. Exhibit C attached hereto sets forth a summary of fees by matter code against budgeted fees and hours. K&S' fees incurred during the Fee Period were, in the aggregate, within the budget estimate for the Fee Period.

13. K&S' charges for its professional services are based upon the time, nature, extent and value of such services and the cost of comparable services incurred in cases other than under the Bankruptcy Code.

PROFESSIONAL SERVICES RENDERED DURING THE FEE PERIOD

14. In accordance with the UST Guidelines, all K&S professionals kept a contemporaneous record of time spent rendering services and separated tasks in billing increments of one-tenth (0.10) of an hour. The following is a summary of the significant professional services rendered by K&S during the Fee Period.

i. DOJ Opioid Marketing Investigations

Total Fees: $39,521.50
Total Hours: 35.6

During the Fee Period, K&S continued to assist the Debtors in connection with investigations by the U.S. Department of Justice and investigations and claims by other entities in an effort to reach a global resolution. K&S' work in this regard included communications with DOJ as well as legal and factual analysis relating to the Debtors' resolution with DOJ and a global resolution.

ii. Bankruptcy Insurance Matter

Total Fees: $98,874.04

Total Hours: 366.9

During the Fee Period, K&S rendered legal services to the Debtors in connection with responses to discovery demands related to ongoing bankruptcy insurance proceedings. K&S was responsible for managing privilege review teams across all active workflows and ensuring timely and proper productions. The discovery team coordinated with the in-house legal department, outside co-counsel, and vendors TCDI and Cobra Legal Solutions to optimize document review workflows, advise and counsel on discovery strategy, lead analysis and review for privilege log challenges, conduct privilege review of pre-production sets and prepare final production sets, including the privilege de-designation review of over 4,000 documents. This de-designation review included scanned documents, totaling over 5,000 pages. In addition to this work, K&S assisted case counsel with preparing eight witness kit deliveries to individual counsel, totaling over 125,000 documents.

iii. Retention and Fee Applications

Total Fees: $30,739.29

Total Hours: 25.9

During the Fee Period, K&S instructed its timekeepers regarding disclosures required pursuant to the Bankruptcy Code, Bankruptcy Rules, Local Rules, and UST Guidelines. In addition, among other things, K&S (i) prepared and filed its Tenth Interim Fee Application and its monthly fee statements pursuant to the Bankruptcy Code, Local Rules, and UST Guidelines, (ii) worked with the Fee Examiner to address any issues raised by the Fee Examiner with respect to K&S' Tenth Interim Fee Application, (iii) participated in the hearing held by the Court in connection with the interim fee applications filed by estate professionals, and (iv) prepared and filed supplemental disclosures.

REASONABLE AND NECESSARY SERVICES

13. The foregoing professional services performed by K&S were necessary and appropriate. The professional services performed by K&S were in the best interests of the Debtors and their stakeholders. Compensation for such services is commensurate with the complexity, importance, and nature of the issues and tasks that are involved in matters related to the opioid investigations. The professional services were performed skillfully and efficiently.

14. In accordance with the factors enumerated in section 330 of the Bankruptcy Code, it is respectfully submitted that the amount requested by K&S is fair and reasonable given (a) the need for the preservation and maximization of value for all participants in these cases; (b) the complexity of the Debtors' matters related to opioid investigations; (c) the time and labor required to represent the Debtors effectively; (d) the nature and extent of services rendered; (e) K&S' experience, reputation and ability; (f) the value of K&S' services; and (g) the cost of comparable services other than in a case under the Bankruptcy Code.

15. K&S has reviewed the requirements of the UST Guidelines and believes that this Fee Application complies in all material respects with those requirements. To the extent this Fee Application does not comply in every respect with the requirements of such guidelines, K&S respectfully requests a waiver for any such technical non-compliance.

ACTUAL AND NECESSARY EXPENSES

16. K&S has not incurred any expenses in connection with providing legal services to the Debtors during the Fee Period.

NOTICE

17. Notice of this Fee Application will be provided to: (a) the entities on the Master

Service List (as defined in the Case Management Order and available on the Debtors' case website at <https://restructuring.primeclerk.com/purduepharma>) and (b) any party that has requested notice pursuant to Bankruptcy Rule 2002 (collectively, the "Notice Parties").

NO PRIOR REQUEST

18. No prior request for the relief sought in the motion has been made to this or any other court.

CONCLUSION

For the foregoing reasons, K&S respectfully requests that the Court (i) award interim allowance of K&S' compensation for professional services rendered during the Fee Period in the amount of $169,668.33, consisting of $169,668.33 in fees and $0.00 in expenses, in all instances as incurred during the Fee Period, (ii) direct payment of the difference between the amounts allowed and any amounts previously paid pursuant to the Interim Compensation Order, and (iii) grant such other and further relief as is just and proper.

for Purdue Pharma L.P. and its debtor affiliates, as debtors and debtors in possession in the above-captioned chapter 11 cases (collectively, the “Debtors”).

2. This certification is made in respect of K&S’ compliance with the Order Establishing Procedures for Interim Compensation and Reimbursement of Expenses for Retained Professionals, dated November 21, 2019 [Docket No. 529] (the “Interim Compensation Order”), the Amended Guidelines for Fees and Disbursements for Professionals in Southern District of New York Bankruptcy Cases Pursuant to General Order M-447 (Jan. 29, 2013) (the “Local Guidelines”), and the U.S. Trustee Guidelines for Reviewing Applications for Compensation and Reimbursement of Expenses Filed Under 11 U.S.C. § 330 by Attorneys in Larger Chapter 11 Cases, effective November 1, 2013 (the “UST Guidelines,” and together with the Interim Compensation Order and the Local Guidelines, the “Fee Guidelines”).

3. This certification is made in connection with K&S’ fee application, dated June 14, 2023, for interim compensation and reimbursement of expenses for the period commencing January 1, 2023 through and including April 30, 2023 in accordance with the Fee Guidelines (the “Fee Application”).

4. Pursuant to section B(1) of the Local Guidelines, I certify that: (i) I have read the Fee Application; (ii) to the best of my knowledge, information, and belief formed after reasonable inquiry, the fees and disbursements sought fall within the Local Guidelines; (iii) the fees and disbursements sought are billed at rates in accordance with those customarily charged by K&S and generally accepted by K&S’ clients, except that K&S has provided the Debtors with certain discounts, as detailed in the Fee Application; and (iv) in providing a reimbursable service, K&S does not make a profit on that service, whether the service is performed by K&S in-house or through a third party.

5. Pursuant to section B(2) of the Local Guidelines, and as required by the Interim Compensation Order, I certify that K&S has complied with provisions requiring it to provide notice to certain designated parties of a statement of K&S' fees and expenses accrued during the previous months.

6. Pursuant to section B(3) of the Local Guidelines, I certify that this Fee Application is being served on the parties designated in the Interim Compensation Order.

7. In accordance with Bankruptcy Rule 2016(a) and section 504 of the Bankruptcy Code, I certify that no agreement or understanding exists between K&S and any other entity for the sharing of compensation received or to be received for services rendered in or in connection with the above-captioned cases except as authorized by the Bankruptcy Code, the Bankruptcy Rules, and the Local Rules. All services for which compensation is sought were professional services rendered on behalf of the Debtors and not on behalf of any other person.

8. The following is provided in response to the request for additional information set forth in ¶ C.5 of the UST Guidelines.

Question: Did K&S agree to any variations from, or alternatives to, your standard or customary billing rates, fees, or terms for services pertaining to this engagement that were provided during the Fee Period?

Answer: Yes. K&S agreed as a courtesy to the Debtors to bill at approximately 90% of its hourly rates in effect when services are rendered. Additionally, K&S agreed to offer additional discounts to the Debtors, including on a sliding scale on certain fees exceeding certain amounts.

Question: If the fees sought in this Fee Application as compared to the fees budgeted for the time period covered by this Fee Application are higher by 10% or more, did K&S discuss the reasons for the variation with the Debtors?

Answer: K&S' fees incurred during the Fee Period were, in the aggregate, within the budget estimate for the Fee Period.

Question: Have any of the professionals included in this Fee Application varied their hourly rate based on the geographic location of these chapter 11 cases?

Answer: No. The hourly rates used by K&S in representing the Debtors are consistent with the rates K&S charges other comparable chapter 11 clients, regardless of the location of the chapter 11 cases.

Question: Does the Fee Application include time or fees relating to review, revising, or reducing time records or preparing, reviewing or revising invoices? If so, please quantify by hours and fees.

Answer: No.

Question: Does the Fee Application include time or fees for reviewing time records to redact any privileged or other confidential information? If so, please quantify by hours and fees.

Answer: No.

Question: If the Fee Application includes any rate increases since K&S' retention, did the Debtors review and approve of those rate increase in advance? Did the Debtors agree when retaining K&S to accept all future rate increases?

Answer: Yes, the Debtors reviewed and approved the rate increases for certain services that took effect on April 4, 2022.² The subject of future rate increases was not discussed when K&S was retained by the Debtors.

[Remainder of Page Intentionally Blank]

² On March 22, 2022, K&S filed the Second Notice of Professional Fee Hourly Rates for King & Spalding LLP, as Special Counsel to the Debtors and Debtors in Possession [ECF No. 2322] (the "Notice"), which provided notice to all parties in interest in these chapter 11 cases of a proposed increase in the hourly billing rates for K&S professionals expected to spend significant time on K&S Services (as defined in the K&S retention application [ECF No. 4582]). No objections to the Notice were filed. Accordingly, such increase in rates took effect on April 4, 2022.

¹³ K&S was over budget during the Fee Period for the Bankruptcy Insurance Matter because unanticipated activities arose, including a complex privilege de-designation review of documents. This review included scanned documents with high-volume page counts. In addition, K&S prepared eight witness kit deliveries, including searches and manual de-duplication across multiple databases. These activities were not anticipated when preparing the budget for the Fee Period in connection with the Bankruptcy Insurance Matter.
